

151 Advising – some salient points

- Only students can do advising and readvising.
- A student will have a time slot of 9AM to 9PM of a scheduled day for complete advising.
- During the 9AM to 9PM slot, students can login & advise as many times as required.
- In case of any difficulty, student should contact Registrar's office.
- Late registration students can only advise on the next business day after fixing the same.
- Students will not be able to login for advising on any other day than the designated schedule.
- Students should frequently check NSU website for any changes, if any.
- 151 Advising will primarily be on WiFi rather than Labs, for ease of advising.
- Wishing a queue and hassle free advising 151 !

Update on 06 December 2014

- Please find the updated schedule for Regular (enrolled) UG, G as well as PBH students. The shown credits are as of today. (previous list was based on 143 advising processing).
- Please note that those who are not listed here are due to either incomplete registration, probation, suspension, dismissed or other special cases.
- Please contact Registrar's office for resolution of the above.

Update on 08 December 2014

- Students who have REGISTERED (not only advised or taken) for courses in 143 can take subsequent course in the pre-req chain in 151.
- If you get "F" in the above mentioned course in 143, please note that the subsequent course will be dropped automatically. (it had been allowed in assumption that student will pass in the course in 143).
