

Banglalink strategic assistant program

Career and Placement Center (CPC) arranged a seminar entitled “Banglalink strategic assistant program” on January 27, 2016 at North South University. Banglalink, being one of the top tier multinational companies, has always maintained a mutually beneficial relationship with North South University. Recently, Banglalink has started a new talent hunt program called the banglalink strategic assistant program. The program is a year-long training program that will allow the strategic assistants to work in all the departments of the company and then determine his/her strengths in the respective working areas. Being a talent hunt program, Banglalink has targeted freshly graduated highly talented business minds to create a progressive career working with Banglalink. There were a few officials from the Banglalink recruitment team present in the session. Faisal Wali, Director, Career and Placement Center, Shahnaz Islam, Senior Job Counselor, Career and Placement Center, Quazi Nafees Ahmed, Senior Recruitment Manager, HR & Administration were the keynote speaker. Ayesha Saeed, Human Resources Business Partner, HR & Administration, Rezwanul Arefin, Recruitment Assistant Manager, HR & Administration, Khaled Bin Obaid, Organizational Development Senior Executive, HR & Administration, Nusrat Jerin Akanda, Associate, Human Resources Business Partner, HR & Administration also discussed about the program in details, in regard to the terms and conditions of applying, and encouraged the students to apply for the program.