

Be Enlightened with Ethical Responsibilities

MORAL BONANZA 2.0, A TEST OF MORALES AND ETHICS WAS HELD AT NORTH SOUTH UNIVERSITY :

The Ethics of Club of North South University recently presented their annual flagship event, the country's first purely ethical awareness based inter-university competition, Moral Bonanza. After four grueling rounds where teams were presented with critical problems of social relevance to solve, the final of the competition was held this past 10th December 2017. Emblazoned with appropriate tagline of "A Step Towards A World", the event presented a unique platform for the youth to express their creativity in solving ethical dilemmas. Owing to nature of Moral Bonanza, students from different academic background and perspective participated and created a larger pool of potential ideas that are needed to make the world a better place. This year 100 teams from 12 universities from all across the country have registered for the competition.

The event was a 4 day test of ethics, sessions from eminent personalities and glamorous celebrations. Students participated in teams comprising of three to four individuals. They were handed a case on Day 1 about sexual violence and discrimination which they had to solve. 30 teams with the best solutions of the cases were selected for the second round. On Day 2, they were again tasked with solving a new unique case on business ethics. Solutions were presented in an oral presentation backed by multimedia formats such as PowerPoint slides, videos, etc. 8 Teams qualified in this round were pitted in one versus one debate rounds on Day 3 where they are given a specific motion connected to education ethics and were tasked to either defend or oppose it. The final four teams were selected to participate in the surprise rounds on the Grand Finale which was on Sports Ethics. The round had presentations, on spot arguments and refutations.

And finally on the 4th day which was on 10th December 2017, a grand closing ceremony brought a celebratory close to the event. The session chair for the evening was the honorable Pro Vice-Chancellor (Designate), North South University, Professor Giasuddin Ahsan; Special Guest for the evening was Honorable Treasurer, North South University, and Dr. Gour Gobinda Goswami. The esteemed judge panel and speakers for the evening were, Mr. Solaiman Sukhon and Mr. Tauquir Ahmed. The 2nd Runner

Be Enlightened with Ethical Responsibilities

Up and 1st runners Up of Moral Bonanza 2.0 were warriors04 from North South University and Team Cutiezzz from University of Dhaka respectively. The Champion of Moral Bonanza 2.0 was Team Crime Master Gogo who also happens to be from North South University. The event was then brought to an end by the performance of renowned band Nemesis.

NSU Ethics Club believes the exposure to working alongside similar aged peers on these simulations and scenarios will further empower these young individuals to integrate ethical awareness into social interactions they are likely to face in real life. Presence of celebrity guests and important personal were the final tool to uphold the importance and necessity of these core ideals.