

Prof. Dr. G U Ahsan nominated for “Mahidol University TROPMED Alumni Award”

Professor Dr. G.U. Ahsan has been nominated as one of the most outstanding “Mahidol University TROPMED Alumni Award” for the year 2015-16. Dr. Ahsan secured the highest CGPA of his PhD course in the year 2002-03. He also secured highest CGPA in his Master of Public Health program of Mahidol University in the year 1992-93. Currently he has been serving as an Honorary Member of the Technical Advisory Board of WHO, SEARO, New Delhi. Prof. Ahsan is serving the North South University as the Dean of the School of Health & Life Sciences and Chairman of the Department of Public Health. He is the pioneer in establishing Public Health higher Education programs in Bangladesh.