

Chinese Scholarship given through NSU Confucius Institute

North South University Confucius Institute hosted the Chinese Government Scholarship ceremony at NSU seminar hall on 28th of August, 2014. This year 67 students have been awarded full and partial scholarships in various fields from Bangladesh.

Dr. Amin U. Sarkar, vice chancellor of NSU, Mr. Li Jun, the ambassador of the People's Republic of China in Bangladesh, Mr. Munshi Faiz Ahmad, former ambassador of the People's Republic of Bangladesh in China, Mr. Chen Shuang, the culture counselor of the embassy of the People's Republic of China in Bangladesh and Dr. Arshad M Chowdhury, director of Confucius Institute at NSU were present in the ceremony.

By congratulating the students, Dr. Amin U Sarkar said that the opportunity for scholars is unlimited and NSU has always strived of these foreign scholarships for its students and other students of the country as well. Mr. Li Jun expressed his satisfaction by student's participation in the ceremony. Mr. Munshi Faiz Ahmad had given some fundamental guidance to students as each student should contact Bangladesh Embassy after their arrival in China.

Chinese Government gives scholarships every year to encourage international students for their higher studies. Students can apply for undergraduate, diploma, postgraduate and doctoral program under this scholarship program through Chinese Embassy. This year two students from North South University and twelve Dhaka University students had received this scholarship.
