

Daylong Seminar and Annual Publication Unveiled.....

To increase the expertise of the students in different arena and make them more dynamic; a series of skill building seminars was organized by North South University English Club recently. The annual publication of the club namely “English Matters” was also unveiled through this event.

The seminars were based on Creative Writing, Journalism, Careers and Public Speaking & Presentation. The guest speakers for the seminars were Sanjana Sadique, Sabrina Fatma Ahmad, Md. Rafiqul Islam and G. Sumdany Don. Among others Dr. James Bryan Hileman, Khan Muhammad Saqiful Alam and Maleka Sarwar, Faculty Members, Belal Ahmed, DDP, VC office, NSU conducted the seminars and delivered speeches on particular topic.

Prof. Amin Sarkar, Ph.D., NSU Vice Chancellor formally unveiled the publications as chief guest. Karim Waheed, Editor, Shout (The Daily Star) was present as the special guest at the closing session. Dr. Selim Sarwar, Dean, School of Humanities and Social Sciences and Farzana Mohsin, Faculty Advisor, North South University delivered closing remarks.

Earlier the event was inaugurated by Dr. AQMA Rahman Bhuiyan, Chair, Department of English & Modern Languages, NSU.