

The Chairman, Board of Trustees, North South University Visited Southampton Solent University, UK

Mr. Mohammed Shajahan, Hon'ble Chairman, Board of Trustees, North South University was invited to visit the Southampton Solent University in the United Kingdom on Tuesday, 10 October 2017. During his visit, he met Professor Graham Baldwin, Vice-Chancellor, Professor Julie Hall, Deputy Vice-Chancellor of Southampton Solent University. He also met Dr. Jennifer Muskett, Head of Computing, School of Media Arts and Technology, Dr. Jonathan Ridley, Head of Engineering, Warsash School of Maritime Science and Engineering, Dr. Richard Berry, Head of Advertising, Marketing and Communications, Dr. Osama Khan, Director of the Solent Learning and Teaching Institute, Dr. Syamantak Bhattacharya, Director of the Warsash School of Maritime Science and Engineering, Dr. Jo Nesbitt, Director of the International Office and other high officials.

During these meetings, the higher authority of Southampton Solent University showed their enthusiastic interest to identify the mutual areas for possible collaboration like faculty and student exchange, academic and joint research development.

After the successful meeting (from left to right) Professor Julie Hall, Deputy Vice-Chancellor, Southampton Solent University, Mr. Mohammed Shajahan, Chairman, Board of Trustees, NSU, Professor Graham Baldwin, Vice-Chancellor, Dr. Osama Khan, Director of the Solent Learning and Teaching Institute, Ms. Alice Kloker, International Programs Manager, Southampton Solent University

The Vice-Chancellor of Southampton Solent University, Professor Graham Baldwin presenting a memento to the Chairman, Board of Trustees, NSU, Mr. Mohammed Shajahan