

Workshop on Graduate Trainee under Young Talent Program

On November 20, 2016 Robi (Axiata) came to conduct a workshop entitled “Graduate Trainee under Young Talent” at North South University. Career and Placement Center (CPC), NSU hosted the team of Robi and organized the workshop. Apart of the workshop Robi conducted an on campus “Internship Interviews” with 35 selected NSU students for the approaching spring 2017 semester. Simultaneously, an inclusive “Case Competition” was held with active involvement of 12 students in 3 groups under the supervision of Robi’s talent hunt team. The winning team in the Case Competition comprising of 4 members was also awarded a token of appreciation on Robi’s behalf. Professor Atiqul Islam, Vice Chancellor, NSU appreciated the brilliant scheme of the workshop and extended to thank Robi to held a talent oriented event like this.

It is noteworthy that Robi also called for a pool of NSU alumni working in different sectors of Robi to facilitate our graduating students get to hear them one-to-one basis in terms to preparatory techniques and other prospects in telecom industry as well.

Throughout the session speakers encouraged the NSU graduates to join and apply for the Graduate Trainee program in coming intake period. They also disseminated pertinent information about the journey of Graduate Trainee program at Robi on its multiple prospect and advantages in the long run. In addition, Speakers offered various advises before students to sharpen their inherent aptness of creativity and to enhance problem solving capacity to excel in the telecom industry. They also revealed of their real life experiences ahead of the graduates to define how to tackle adverse situation profitably in professional life.

Mr. Zaved Pervez, Vice President, Resourcing, Robi, Mr. Maruful Alam Chowdhury, Vice President, People & Corporate, Robi also an alumni of NSU were in the speakers’ panel on the event on Robi’s behalf. Mr. Faisal Wali, Director, CPC, NSU, Ms. Shahnaz Islam, Senior Job Counselor, CPC and a number of graduating students of NSU were in the attendees of the workshop.