

Faculty Application for Funding for Publication Costs

NSU CTRG Policy, Section III.2 Publications states: “A faculty member (a) who is the recipient of a conference travel or research grant, and (b) whose presented paper is subsequently accepted for publication in a properly peer-reviewed and indexed journal of good standing that has an option for open-access publication with fee, may apply to the CTRGC for funds to defray the cost of open-access publication. Consistent with (a) and (b) a faculty member may apply for funds to defray article processing charges.”
