

Probation 4 and Above

1. Probation 4: Students are dismissed

- These students may apply in writing to consider their case for one extra semester. However, they will be auto “Terminated” in the following semester with no question asked if their probation status remains the same.
- Only Student with CGPA 1.5 or above will be eligible to apply for a special consideration.
- The rest of the students with CGPA less than 1.5 will not be considered
- Their application must be accompanied by an undertaking in presence of their parents & with their signature.

2. Probation 5 and above: These students have been provided with multiple opportunities in the last couple of semesters. For some of these students, it is mathematically impossible to come out of the probation.

It is therefore in everybody’s best interest to release these students to allow them pursue their student career in another institution. These students will be terminated from the current semester.
