

Fall 2019 Advising Process

The advising will be in three phases as before. The procedure is the same for almost all students.

Phase 1 - Restriction less advising (Based on Pre-advising)

1. Advising will be based on students' pre-advising selections. A student cannot advise if pre-advising is not complete. A student cannot advise if faculty evaluation is not complete.
2. There is no restriction on course adding, dropping, section change etc.
3. Each and every student has at least two slots for the entire day.
4. Any student who is missing slot, has the option to advise in phase 2 in phase 3
5. This phase is scheduled to start from July 13, 2019

Phase 2 - Drop less advising

1. Pre-advising restriction will be removed. All courses will be visible to all students.
2. Course drop is strictly prohibited
3. Section change is possible if seat is available
4. Maximum care must be taken while adding a course. A course cannot be dropped once added.
5. This phase is scheduled to start from July 14, 2019

Phase 3 - Slot less advising

1. The system will remain open for advising for all
2. All courses will remain available to all students.
3. Course drop is strictly prohibited.
4. Section change is allowed.
5. Must consider the implications while adding a course since drop is not allowed.
6. This phase is scheduled to start from July 21, 2019.
