

MoU Signing between NSU and BIPSOT

North South University (NSU) and the Bangladesh Institute of Peace Support Operation Training (BIPSOT) signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) on 11th February 2020 at BIPSOT, Rajendrapur. BIPSOT is one of the finest organizations for peace support operation training in the world. In particular, the MoU will enable the Center for Peace Studies (CPS), SIPG of NSU and BIPSOT to engage in academic interaction and collaboration, which may include faculty and student exchange, holding seminars, workshop, training for peacebuilding, a certificate course on the UN system/peacebuilding, sharing of academic data, scientific information, intellectual property, as well as articles and publications. Both institutions are committed to contributing to the promotion of global peace.

At the MoU signing ceremony, Professor Atiqul Islam, Vice Chancellor of NSU, and Maj Gen Sajjadul Haque, BSP, SUP, afwc, psc, Commandant of BIPSOT, were present. The MoU signing delegates from NSU included Mr. Md. Shahidul Haque, Senior Fellow of SIPG, Dr. M Jashim Uddin, Associate Prof, Dept. of PSS, and Coordinator of CPS, and Dr. Katherine Li, Director Office of External Affairs & Advisor to CPS. The faculty members/military high officials of BIPSOT were also present at the occasion. The visit concluded with a wonderful tour of the BIPSOT campus.

