LAW AND MOOTING SOCIETY

Heartiest congratulations to the newly appointed Executive Body Panel of North South University Law and Mooting Society (NSULMS). NSULMS is looking forward to embarking on a new era of leadership, enthusiasm, and dedication. This marks a renewed commitment to fostering excellence and setting new precedents. We firmly believe that the new panel will bring fresh energy, innovative ideas, and greater achievements. We wish the newly appointed EBs the very best in carrying forward the vision of NSULMS and strengthening the mooting culture.

As we bid farewell to the Executive Body Panel 106 of the North South University Law and Mooting Society (NSULMS), we extend our heartfelt gratitude and best regards for their dedicated service. Throughout their tenure, Panel 106 has exemplified outstanding leadership, sincerity and commitment towards the club. They have guided NSULMS towards remarkable achievements. The precedents they set will continue to inspire and positively shape the future of NSULMS. We sincerely thank the former EBs of LMS for their invaluable contributions and wish them the very best in all their future endeavors.
